

1

2

3

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

Northern District of California

5

6 JULIO FLORES, et al.,

7

Plaintiffs,

No. C-12-686 MEJ

8

v.

9

NATIONAL RAILROAD PASSENGER
CORP. dba AMTRAK, et al.,

ORDER RE: CASE MANAGEMENT REQUESTS

10

Defendants.

/

11

12 The Court is in receipt of the parties' request for a case management conference. Upon 13 review of the parties' request, the Court finds a conference unnecessary and ORDERS as follows:

- 14 1) To the extent that the parties all seek to extend case management deadlines (including 15 deposing experts), they shall file a stipulation and proposed order;
- 16 2) To the extent that the parties are unable to reach an agreement regarding any deadlines
17 (including rebuttal expert reports), they shall comply with the undersigned's discovery
18 standing order;
- 19 3) To the extent that the parties object to the content of expert reports, such objections are 20 properly addressed through rebuttal expert reports, objections filed as part of or in opposition
21 to a summary judgment motion, or in motions in limine; and
- 22 4) Any party submitting the train's locomotive video (or any other video) shall manually file it
23 in compliance with Civil Local 5-1(f).

24

IT IS SO ORDERED.

25

Dated: May 9, 2013

26

Maria-Elena James
United States Magistrate Judge

27

28

